

We Shall Be Monsters

Editor: Derek Newman-Stille

Publisher: Renaissance Press

Language: English

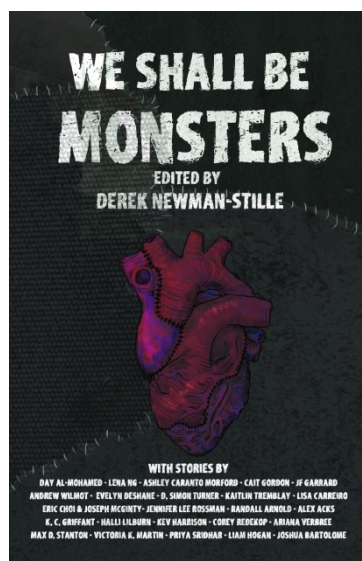

Paperback ISBN: 978-1987963410

eBook ASIN: B07MDDMFSG

Release Date: 2018/12/27

Available now from

Renaissance Press and Amazon

Edited by multiple Prix Aurora Award winner Derek Newman-Stille and published by Renaissance Press, We Shall Be Monsters commemorates the bicentennial and legacy of the ground-breaking and genre-changing novel Frankenstein: Or, the Modern Prometheus by Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley. We Shall Be Monsters features twenty-four stories and poems by diverse authors from around the world, ranging from direct interpretations of Shelley's text to innovative explorations of stitched, assembled body, and narrative experiments in monstrous creations.

Table of Contents

Introduction: Back From the Dead by Derek Newman-Stille
"Ashes to Ashes" by Day Al-Mohamed
"Love Transcendent" by Lena Ng
"Chimera" by Andrew Wilmot
"Excerpts from the Personal Journal of Dr. V. Frankenstein, MD..." by Alex Acks
"The Patchwork Girl" by Evelyn Deshane
"Ragdoll in Ragtime" by D. Simon Turner
"Enough" by Jennifer Lee Rossman
"Sins of the Father" by Randall G. Arnold
"I, Igor" by Liam Hogan
"Wanting" by KC Grifant
"The Hilltop Gathering" by Cait Gordon
"Monster" by Halli Lilburn
"The Perfect Husband" by JF Garrard
"Muscle Memory" by Kev Harrison
"The Solution" by Corey Redekop
"Frankenstein Inc." by Max D. Stanton
"F. – A Post-Modern Prometheus" by Eric Choi and Joseph McGinty
"The Last Confession of Dottore Geppetto" by Joshua Bartolome
"Famous Monsters" by Arianna Verbree
"Unfashioned Creatures" by Priya Sridhar
"Terra Cotta Children" by Lisa Carreiro
"More" by Kaitlin Tremblay
"Mother Monster" by Victoria K. Martin
"Wollstonecraft" by Ashley Caranto Morford
Afterword by Kate Story